

DEPTH OF LIES

IF YOU THINK YOU KNOW YOUR FRIENDS. THINK AGAIN.

When Shea Walker, a sunny, easygoing mom, is found dead in a bathtub with a stomach full of booze and pills, the shocking discovery shatters the complacency of her comfortable suburban community. Kat Burrows, Shea's longtime friend and neighbor, is hit hardest. How could a woman she thought she knew so well come to such a sordid end? What could lead happy, well-adjusted, responsible Shea to accidentally overdose, or worse, lead her to suicide? Compelled to uncover the truth of Shea's final months, Kat delves beneath the orderly surface of her familiar world to discover a web of thwarted desire, shameful secrets, and shocking betrayal that suggests a scarier explanation for what happened to Shea. As her carefully constructed reality begins to crumble, Kat must question every reassuring assumption her life is built upon to solve the mystery...and summon the courage and resourcefulness to survive it.

THE REVIEWS: "A brilliant examination of the shadows lurking in every relationship and what happens when you step into the darkness."

Mindy Mejia, bestselling author of Everything You Want Me To Be

"An irresistible whodunit...with polish and freshness that'll keep hearts racing." Bestthrillers.com

"A fun mystery...that builds momentum as it moves along, achieving can't-put-it-down, page-turner status as it builds to a great climax...Pulse-pounding and intellectually engaging."

Windy City Reviews

"Mind-bending drama inside a page-turning thriller."

West Suburban Living Magazine (Oct 2017)

"Well-orchestrated ...[and] at its best when it explores what lies beneath the surface of suburbia."

About the Author:

This mega-selling author and former attorney has a depth of experiences that makes her a compelling story-teller and author. Her debut legal thriller, The Green Line, was published by Thomas & Mercer in 2013, landing on several of Amazon's best-selling lists in the U.S. and abroad. In 2015, Diskin wrote psychological thriller, Broken Grace, which quickly hit best-selling status and garnered translation deals in Germany, South Korea, and Italy. With this latest story, Diskin has drawn upon her own life in the suburbs, creating another fast-paced, just-one-more-chapter read, while diving into the inevitable secrets and lies of motherhood and marriage, even between the closest of friends. She's been featured on Rick Kogan's WGN radio program in Chicago twice, as well as the PBS New Years' Mystery Marathon in 2015. She is most grateful to her dedicated and enthusiastic readers and welcomes every opportunity to meet and connect with them. She has been a featured speaker at more than thirty book clubs, both locally, and via Skype.
